Content

- Submission of inquiry dossiers
 - New business rules
 - Changes in the submission report
- Result of inquiry process

Submission of inquiry dossiers

- No changes to submission process
- New business rules introduced to inform inquirers if
 - Inquiry submitted is unnecessary
 - Data given regarding the information requirements and/or administrative data is inconsistent

New business rules

- Inquiry is unnecessary
 - EINECS listed substances, which the inquirer has pre-registered, but not registered
 - Art. 12(2) inquiries without request for additional information

→ No reason to inquire and therefore also no reason to wait for inquiry result before registering or updating registration dossier
- Data given is inconsistent
 - Inconsistencies regarding request for data
 - Inquiry type vs. role of the company

→ Need to check the data and submit a new inquiry dossier

Changes in the submission report

- If the inquiry dossier does not contain an EC/list number, REACH-IT automatically assigns an EC/list number for it
 - This EC/list number will be displayed in the submission report
This number should NOT be used to submit a registration dossier
 - When the inquiry dossier has been assessed by ECHA and the inquiry is accepted, the submission report is updated with the relevant EC/list number
 - If the inquiry dossier cannot be processed by ECHA due to missing and/or inconsistent information the submission report is not updated
- Need to wait for the inquiry result as the registration could be submitted with a wrong EC/list number
