ECHA HAS OPENED REGISTRATION FOR ITS FIRST STAKEHOLDER DAY

On 10 October, the European Chemicals Agency organizes its first Stakeholder Day in co-operation with the European Commission at Finlandia Hall in Helsinki, Finland.

The programme of the first Stakeholder Day covers: pre-registration and other data submission processes to the Agency, substances of very high concern and ECHA's dialogue with stakeholders and third countries.

The Agency will organise stakeholder events regularly in the future. The purpose of these events is to develop transparent channels of communication, dialogue and engagement between ECHA and its different interest groups.

Stakeholders are invited to register for the event on the website of the Agency. The main target audiences are industry associations and non-governmental organisation that have a key interest in the successful implementation of REACH. Also third countries and organisations that have a direct interest in the Regulation or are involved in ECHA's activities are invited to register. Up to 400 seats are available and criteria have been established how to make selection if necessary.
