

Curriculum Vitae

Hans Meijer

---

Main expertise in summary

Coordinator chemicals, biocidal products and asbestos in the Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment in the Netherlands. Previous experience in the area of biocidal products, nanomaterials and endocrine disrupting substances.

---

Professional experience

Started at the Ministry of Environment in 1991, first in the area of waste (shipment, national waste policy plan). Subsequently worked on environmental aspects of greenhouses as well as on policy on biocidal products.

After this, for four years Seconded National Expert at the European Commission in the area of clean air and transport.

After return to the Netherlands, joined the team safety of chemicals and since September 2014 active as coordinator of this team.

---

Education

Studied Environmental Science at the University of Wageningen, the Netherlands, with a thesis on purification of industrial waste water.

---

Other relevant information

Language skills: mother tongue Dutch; fluent in English; adequate in French and German

---

Date 8 September 2015