

Curriculum Vitae

Anne-France Rihoux

---

Main expertise in summary

She has an experience and expertise in the field of the regulation of chemicals. She has the general responsibility for budgetary and planning matters in public sector.

She is the Belgian Member of the Directors Board of ECHA from 2012

Her responsibilities also include the policy dialogue on national and European levels with stakeholders.

---

Professional experience

She is General Adviser and deputy to the head of the Division of Products Policy and Chemicals in the Belgian Federal Public services for Health and Environment.

The objective of the Division is to regulate the market of products and chemicals, to reduce their impact on the health and environment. It mainly uses the legislative tool as a lever for public policy , in consultation with other government's partners (federal departments and regions , stakeholders and civil society organizations). The Division is the Competent authority for the EU legislations such as REACH, Biocides, PIC, CLP, ROHS.

She holds this position from 1 november 2011. From 2007 to 2011, she worked by the Former Federal Ministry of Energy and Environment. Before she used to work with private sector and Environmental NGO's.

---

Education

She holds a Master degree in History and Archeology at the University of Louvain (Belgium) and she has completed his basic training with several management and public management training cycles.

---

Other relevant information

---

Date : 9 june 2015