

Curriculum Vitae

Peter SMITH

Main expertise in summary

Since January 2012, acting as Executive Director for Product Stewardship at the European Chemical Industry Council (Cefic). The responsibilities in this role cover all aspects of REACH, CLP and Prior Informed Consent (PIC) that impact chemical companies. Additionally, between 2013 and 2015 responsible for Cefic's Specialty Chemicals Sector Groups which include Biocidal products, which are regulated by the BPR.

Professional experience

Currently Executive Director of Product Stewardship and International Chemicals Management at Cefic (4 years). 27 years in research and development in the consumer goods sector (Procter and Gamble). Sector experience ranging from food/feed and household cleaning to personal health and cosmetics. Also experience in new business development. Considerable expertise in both pre-market and in-market regulatory compliance and validation testing. Worked in the UK, Italy and Belgium. Experience of developing consumer products for sale in Europe, Asia, US and Latin America.

Education

BSc Chemistry (Imperial College/Sheffield University)

PhD Physical Organic Chemistry (Sheffield University)

Other relevant information

English (mother tongue) – Italian (basic)

Imperial college Scholarship

Haworth Model for Chemistry

Date: 15 December 2015