

Curriculum Vitae – Biography

SURNAME: YIANNAKI

FORENAME: ANASTASSIOS

ORGANISATION / EMPLOYER: Department of Labour Inspection (DLI) – Ministry of Labour and Social Insurance (MLSI) of Cyprus

EMPLOYMENT: Civil Servant since June 1988 in MLSI.
At present Acting Director of DLI. In the field of chemicals his duties include the design of policy, the implementation and the enforcement of legislation (REACH, CLP, SEVESO), the management of issues related to international instruments such as the Stockholm and Rotterdam Conventions and SAICM.
During his previous positions, held in DLI as a Principal / Senior Labour Inspection Officer and Engineering Inspector, he worked as technical supervisor and trainer of Labour Inspectors, Head of Safety and Health Sector and Coordinator of health and safety inspection activities including chemicals.
He is representative of Cyprus in various EU Committees / Groups such as the Senior Labour Inspectors Committee, the Advisory Committee of Safety and Health and member of the Management Board of the European Agency of Safety and Health.
He represented Cyprus in International Labour Organisations (ILO) Conferences and participated in the EU accession negotiations Cypriot team.
Before joining the Civil Service he worked in the private sector for 4 years as Engineer in the manufacturing industry.

EDUCATION: He is a holder of University Degrees in Electronics, Electrical Engineering and Automatics (France 1982), Electrical Engineering (France 1984) and a Master Degree in Public Sector Management (Cyprus 2001). He has carried out also specialized university studies in Occupational Safety and Health (UK 1992).

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATION: Member of the Institution of the Technical Chamber of Cyprus (Association of Cypriot Engineers) and Member of the Cyprus Safety and Health Association and the Safety Platform.

LANGUAGES: English, French and Greek fluently