The image shows a screenshot of the ECHA event interface. On the left, the 'Participants' panel is expanded, showing a list of participants. A callout box points to the 'Panelists and Presenters' section of this list, stating 'Panelists and Presenters will be listed here.' Below this, a list of participants is shown, including 'Rasmus Johansen (Host)' and 'Ian Newbury'. On the right, the 'Q&A' panel is shown, currently displaying 'All (0)'. A callout box points to the 'Ask:' dropdown menu, which is set to 'All Panelists'. Below the dropdown is a text input field with a character limit of 256 and a 'Send' button. A red dashed line highlights the 'Ask:' dropdown and the text input field. Several instructional callout boxes are present: 'If you have a question, type it here:' points to the text input field; 'Use the drop-down list and select "All panelists" before you send your question' points to the 'Ask:' dropdown; 'Click Send' points to the 'Send' button; and 'Await your answer.' is positioned at the bottom left.
